Tour Pricing and Group Size

All the scheduled tours are priced based on minimum of 10 full-paid participants traveling together for the entire trip and two persons sharing one hotel room (or cruise cabin). Each scheduled tour is limited to maximum of 20 guests. If a scheduled tour does not reach the minimum number of participants 60 days before the tour departure date, ChinaPlus will notify the tour members of the following options: (1) keep the tour at minimum amount of additional payment (ChinaPlus will absorb the maximum additional charges from suppliers); (2) switch to a different tour (price of the new tour will apply); (3) cancel the tour with full refund (This cancellation policy does not reply to any other situation).

The tour prices listed in the brochure are based on the currency exchange rate between U.S dollar and Chinese yuan at the time the brochure is printed. ChinaPlus will take all the efforts to prevent the tour price from increasing. However, we reserve the right to adjust the tour prices in the event of considerable exchange rate change. However the list tour price will not increase after the full payment is received.

Airline Tickets Arrangements

Air tickets on ChinaPlus designated airlines on scheduled group tour dates. ChinaPlus will select one air carrier (mostly U.S. carriers) as the designated airlines for each group at its sole discretion. Flight schedules will be provided about 75 days before departure. For departure other than LAX (or SFO), ChinaPlus arranges connecting flights from most cities in the U.S. The flight schedules will follow the airline routing (not all flights will connect with LAX or SFO). If the designated air carrier does not offer appropriate connecting flights from the city you requested, ChinaPlus will contact you for the alternative flight schedules and airfare add-on.

Air tickets on ChinaPlus designated airlines but not on scheduled group tour dates. ChinaPlus can arrange airline tickets on dates other than the scheduled group tour dates upon request 75 days before departure based on seat availability. The client is responsible for additional airfare (such as weekend charge).

Air tickets on air carriers other than ChinaPlus designated airlines. ChinaPlus offers custom air arrangements for tour members who prefer an air carrier other than the airlines designated for the group. The client is responsible for additional airfare. A written request for such air arrangements is required 75 days before departure and such bookings are based on seat availability.

Connecting flights not through ChinaPlus. If you handle the connecting flights yourself, we highly recommend that you not pay for the air tickets until you have received the written confirmation from ChinaPlus for your international airline tickets. This is to avoid possible airline penalty for you since the tour itineraries or group flight schedules may change in case of unexpected circumstances. However, ChinaPlus is not responsible for any cost and airline penalty in this case..

Land-only package. For land-only package (excluding international airfare), deduct $550 from the list tour price. If you buy land-only package, you are responsible for any cost and airline penalty incurred in case of the tour dates and itinerary change.

Airline tickets upgrade. Request for airline tickets upgrade should be sent to ChinaPlus in writing 75 days before departure. Space is based on availability and airfare is subject to change until the tickets are issued. For upgrade with mileage points, the client needs to take land-only tour package and handle the international airline tickets individually (such upgrade cannot be combined with the air tickets we handle for groups).

Change after the airline tickets are booked. Any change on airline tickets after the tickets are booked is subject to availability. Additional airfare and airline penalty plus $50 (per person) service fee will apply for such change.
